

Chad A. Leaver, Research Manager

A practice

Foundations (2001 – 2009)

- MSc. Community Health & Epidemiology
- Ipsos-Reid Internship, Healthcare & Pharmaceuticals
- Academic, University of Toronto, CRICH, ICES
- Medical, St. Michael's Hospital
- Community, AIDS Service Organizations

Training

(Veugelers, Myers, Travers, Dunn, Perreault, Demetrakopoulos, the 'Survive to Thrive' ABPO working group & advisory committee, Schull)

■ Academic

- Sexual health and behaviours
- Community-based Research methods & practice
- Housing and health outcomes
- Evaluation of health system policy interventions, Emergency Department wait-times
- Regional, National & International KTE

■ Community

- LGBT youth migration in Canada and HIV vulnerability
- Bereavement, multiple loss, survivorship and sexual health
- Evaluation of the XIV International AIDS Conference, Global Village
- Education and Aboriginal health and culture
- Community engagement, participation and action-based research

Everyday research

- CDN system of healthcare organization, management & policy/governance
- Teamwork
- Social Epidemiology/ determinants of health
- Epidemiologic principles & biostatistics
- Scientific and Community-based Research methods: Quantitative, Qualitative
 - design > data collection/management > analytics > interpretation
 - writing/ reporting/ presenting-knowledge sharing/translation
- Enthusiasm, patience and original contributions

Everyday reality

- Systematic OCD
 - Organization, Communication, Documentation
- Stakeholder relations and diplomacy
- Creative solutions and resolutions
- Data diligence
- Leadership and Organizational responsibilities
- Reading, writing, arithmetic and active listening

